

20/20 (Tunnel Vision)

Graveyard

Shaking, aching, faking, trying to be on this Admit it to myself, I've got nobody left to call a friend.
I wanna drink again.

Whining, dining, crying, lying, denying, burning all the chloro form.
Holding back my tears, I never felt like that long day.
I wanna drink again.

Ain't a light in my tunnel, but the gold tooth in the devil's s mile.
I walked a wide road a thousand times
You never let me anywhere.

Ain't a light in my tunnel, but the gold tooth in the devil's s mile.
I walked a wide road a thousand times
You never let me anywhere.

Loosing, bragging, losing, sleeping, sliding on to that embodie d
Go used to be time, I see the reback coming round the band.
I wanna drink again.

Willing, dealing, stealing, cheating, beating, burning all my b ridges.
I ain't got no pride, these turning hands got nothing to defend
I wanna drink again.

I hear the lones outside along the guitar,
It's coming through the wind.
A bottle keeps on sliding, whipping out my blues,
I bring years with lands.

Ain't a light in my tunnel, but the gold tooth in the devil's s mile.
I walked a wide road a thousand times
You never let me anywhere.

I hear the lones outside along the guitar,
It's coming through the wind.
A bottle keeps on sliding, whipping out my blues,
I bring years with lands.
