

Can't Stop Falling

Great Big Sea

1. I wasn't looking for a lover,
I wasn't looking for a friend
I wasn't working undercover,
I wasn't trying to pretend

Then you walked across the dance floor,
Just like the moon across the sky,
And I knew that I would have to see more,
I knew that I would have to try

I look into your eyes, and I realise

R: Oh, no, I can't stop falling, my heart betrays me, and I know, I'll start to feel it all again,
Won't someone save me?

2. When she jumped aboard the Brown Line and I accidentally caught her eye she told me she was born a Libra, An' I told her I was Gemini

She made Suggestive Conversation, oh, then she lightly brushed my hand overcome by her temptation, we jumped out down by the Strand

And in the English night, (ooh) oh, I realise it again...

R: Oh, no, I can't...

*: She asked me to come inside, we could just talk for a while I wonder if I should, but her touch, her touch, (oh, no, no) it feels so good

R: Oh, no, I can't... (2x)
