

Three Days At Sea (Three Lost Years)

Great Lake Swimmers

First day, I was lost at sea
I had nothing to eat
But I thought home was near
I found myself in an Unfamiliar place
My first night
On an unfamiliar tide

Second day I woke up
Had almost forgotten
I had never thought to
Try on different colored robes
And I was face down in the in the sand
And I was lucky to be alive
Lucky to have survived

And on the third day
I was weak so I
Collapsed on the beach
And I died of hunger
And when they found me
They saw how much that
I had changed, I had changed
I had

I have changed, I have
I have changed, I have
I have changed, I have
I have changed, I have
