

Big Goodbye

Great White

Hey, hey, baby, no more lies
Hey, hey, baby, this is the big goodbye

Remember, baby, dreams we shared
We ran with crazies, lived on solid air
Do you remember, lady, who you used to be?
Did you become the stranger, baby, you or me?

I guess you were just trying
To keep our love alive
But, baby, all your lying
Just took it for a ride

A man of constant sorrow under an evil eye
Baby, when it's over the truth is first to die
I believe in magic, fire that binds a band
Baby, there's no magic in hiding sleight of hand

I guess that I was trying
To keep myself alive
But then there's no denying
I was losing all my pride

Hey, hey, baby, no more lies
Hey, hey, baby, this is the big goodbye
Hey, hey, baby, no more lies
Hey, hey, baby, this is the big goodbye

I guess you were just trying
To buy some peace of mind
But, baby, there's no buying
Eyesight for the blind

Hey, hey, baby, no more lies
Hey, hey, baby, this is the big goodbye
Hey, hey, baby, no more lies
Hey, hey, baby, this is the big goodbye
Hey, hey, baby, no more lies
Hey, hey, baby, this is the big goodbye
