

Old Rose Motel

Great White

I see you bleed the feelings you close up
I know the pain that you hide
Oh, baby, please don't be no close out
Stay with me through the night, every night, baby

Needle street ain't no answer
Can't dream a heartache away
Let the need be your master
All of your dreams fade away

Everything you want
Everything you want
Anything you want
Anything you want
You can find it right here

Oh, no, don't go
Down to the midnight motel
Oh, no, don't go
Can't find no heaven in hell

There's a silence that comes in the morning
Leaves you screamin' at the wall
As you sit there in your easy chair
Chasin' demons at a crawl

Oh, no, don't go
Down to the midnight motel
Oh, no, so low
Down to the Old Rose Motel
Yeah yeah, yeah yeah

When you feel that you'll never find
Somewhere you'll be safe to lie
Just take a look over here, yeah
Together we'll rise in a mornin' glory

Anything you want
Anything you want
Everything you want
Everything you want
You can find it right here, yeah

Oh, no, don't go
Down to the midnight hotel
Oh, no, so low
Down to the Old Rose Motel
