

Waiting For Love

Great White

Every day I wake to find
Empty arms, shuttered blinds
No one holding to my side
Laying in my lonely bed
Confused about the things we said
Nothing straight in my mind

I can't stand waiting, anticipating
Being here without you
I'm waiting for love
I'm waiting for love

A prisoner in an ivory tower
Stranded in my darkest hour
On a broken bridge of sighs
If it's true that love has lied
If it's true my heart will cry
No one else can make it right

I can't stand waiting, anticipating
Being here without you

If I could only see you
My heart will always need you
Here I stand, heart in hand for you
I'm waiting for love
I'm waiting for love
I'm waiting for love
I'm just waiting for your love

I can't stand waiting, anticipating
Here I stand on the edge waiting on you
I'm waiting
I'm just waiting for your love
I'm waiting for love
I'm waiting for love
Now I'm waiting
I'm waiting for love
Now give me give me your love
I'm waiting
I'm waiting for your love
I'm waiting for your love
Give me love
Give me give me your love
I'm waiting for love
