

For the Damned

Greedy Invalid

Oh girl,
I'd like to shake you by the hand Then perhaps later
we could shake it all again
It would be a pleasure to spend some time with you As long as our both bodies enjoy the liaison

Oh dove,
what you feel does not mean much What really matters is how skilful is your touch Liquid is the poison, liquid - that's when in drain Metaphor of a love potion we will drink now all the same

For the damned
the globe is turning
For the damned
I keep my dreams
For the damned
I'm never sorry
Never will I change my schemes
For the damned
This fucking harlot means as much as shit to me
For the damned
I sing my anthem in solitude
You sing with me

Oh love,
it's been a pleasure to lick your heart and now do pardon me It's time for us to get apart
Whenever you call me
I will not respond Live long and prosper, darling I'm gonna leave you here
