

I can remember your sweet words
I can hear them in my mind
When I feel lonely I hate the cold
Of your tears flowing down on me

And when you want to know
I dream 'bout you
I long for you, living without you
You disappeared some years ago
Well I don't know,
I am stuck in a big hole

So come on -
We're swimming through the ocean
Through the ocean of tears
So drift on - it's really nice devotion
We're together and free

I do love to feel you every time
Like an integral part of my heart
Burning all the nightmares deep inside
Cleaning my soul of all that hate

And when you want to know
I've never said single bad word
About you
You were my first
And you will always be
The one who's next me
And make me feel no harm
