

Lost Letter

Greedy Invalid

Another day of desperate hearts has come to its final act
My brain advises me to commit a suicide every sound's makin' me mad
I think I gonna explode
I am so confused
Memories are mixing with fancies again and again
I am caught in my own shadow which is cold as steel
The only way to find a way is to disappear

In the heap of old junk
I found a lost letter which no-one has seen It tells 'bout great love that I desire passionately I'm searching for grace to heal the painful wounds in my heart
'Cause I cannot face this ruthless world alone

Peaks of my feelings they are so keen
They jab my poor soul
Could you tell me what does this mean?
Please give me a rescue rope
I just want to evaporate and join the air
I want to be free
Just let me dissociate Virtua beauty, don't you let me drown any more
