

Atom Doesn't Lie

Greeley Estates

tell me how, how were you the one i confided in i let into my life you lied to me and you'll pay, pay for for all of the decisions you've made there's no escape from what you've done so this is who you really are to think i trusted you

and now all your words mean nothing to me
'cause your actions speak the truth

i thought that i knew you somehow you fooled me it's sad to see what you've turned, turned into don't ask me who you really are 'cause i wouldn't know you lied to me

'cause your actions speak the truth

(how can you live with yourself) it's like the sky is falling down around you now and there's no, no escape (2x)

so this is who you really are
'cause your actions speak the truth

speak the truth
your actions speak the truth (2x)
