

Believe the Lies

Greeley Estates

If this is it, then whats the point of living without any hope we know that there is more than what we see a reason for being here

will we give in and let it suffocate us will we breathe

we know we're worth more than they tell us so we search to find the truth could it be that the answer's right in front of our eyes if all we are is a mistake then what's the point is all of this we won't believe the lies they are telling

we won't believe the lies we're told that there is nothing sacred about the life we have what will it take for us to see beyond our circumstance

then what's the point of all of this

will we sit back and settle for a cheap imitation

is it so hard to see our way its so hard
