Bodies

Greeley Estates

This is a crime scene and no one touches the victims;
it's evidence.
This is a crime scene and no one touches the victims.
This is a crime scene and now the world has seen me for who I am.
This is a crime scene and now the world has seen me.

Turns out they found the bodies, the bodies in my floor.
Turns out they found the bodies, underneath the boards.

Do you ever feel like you're a prisoner locked up in chains of guilt?
Do you ever feel like you're a prisoner locked up?
Do you ever feel like you've been sentenced to death an there's no way out?
Do you ever feel like you've been sentenced to death?

God, come down.

Turns out they found the bodies, the bodies in my
floor.
Turns out they found the bodies, underneath the boards.
Turns out they found the bodies, the bodies in my
floor.
Turns out they found the bodies, underneath the boards.

Put those handcuffs on me.
But don't be the first one to throw a stone.
Put those handcuffs on me.
What's buried in the heart comes out in the end.
Put those handcuffs on me.
But don't be the first one to throw a stone.
Put those handcuffs on me.
What's buried in the heart comes out in the end.

Turns out they found the bodies, the bodies in my
floor.
Turns out they found the bodies, underneath the boards.
Turns out they found the bodies, the bodies in my
floor.
Turns out they found the bodies, underneath the boards.

This was a crime scene. They said that I was a monster in my past.
This was a crime scene, but now I've been acquitted.
God came down.

What's buried in the heart will eventually surface in the end.
God, come down.

Put those handcuffs on me.
But don't be the first one to throw a stone.
Put those handcuffs on me.
What's buried in the heart comes out in the end.
Put those handcuffs on me.

But don't be the first one to throw a stone.
Put those handcuffs on me.
What's buried in the heart comes out in the end.
Put those handcuffs on me.
What's buried in the heart comes out in the end.
Put those handcuffs on me.
What's buried in the heart comes out in the end.
