

Friendly Neighborhood Visit

Greeley Estates

What's wrong I see those tears in your eyes,
you can fool me with those sunglasses on.
Don't lie I've heard him yelling before,
if this happens again I swear I'll kick down his door.
You don't know how beautiful you are, but if he hits you
again.
I'll bleed him out from head to toe.
You don't know how beautiful you are, but if he hits you
again.
I'll pay him a visit with this gun.
Wake up you can't keep living this way,
that makeup won't cover the bruise on your face.
You don't know how beautiful you are, but if he hits you
again.
I'll bleed him out from head to toe.
You don't know how beautiful you are, but if he hits you
again.
I'll pay him a visit with this gun.
Raise your voices the time for justice has come.
There's far too many women with sunglasses on.
There's a time for violence and its now.
Think your tough hitting women we're about to find out.
There's a time for violence and its now.
You're starring down the barrel of this shotgun pal.
