

The Killing Fields

Greeley Estates

Picking up the pieces of what's left of you and I
Find myself running around in circles trying to catch up to you
I'm tired of all the fighting
Just want to leave it all behind
Feels like it's building up, getting worse and there's no hope for you and I

Don't you know?
You know that I would die for you
You know you kill me

Where do we begin from here?
Can we turn another page?
Do I love you or I hate you?
Right now it's hard to say it
Have we lost it all?
Torn apart every moment that we shared
Or can we fix what's left?
Start again before it gets too late

Don't you know?
You know that I would die for you
You know you kill me
Don't you know?
You know that I would die for you
Watch me as I die for you

The last time I saw you I was calling out your name
You stood there acting like you couldn't hear a single word I said
That night you turned and walked away and left me standing there
Standing there in the pouring down rain
I've lived and died for what feels like a thousand lifetimes
But I'd still give you every star up in the sky just to spend another night
All that's been left behind
I can't forget you
Don't you know?
You have to know that I would die for you
You know you kill me
