

The Reaction

Greeley Estates

Feels good as it brings you down.
That moment when nothing else matters to you in your life.
I'm numb.

I can feel it move through my veins.
I can feel the reaction.
My heart's beating faster.

I've tried to find a way for me to fill this void inside.
I never thought that I would sink this low.
And now I think I've lost control.
Drift off to that perfect place.
That escape where you hide from the issues and fears that you face.
I'm numb, I'm numb, I'm numb.

I can feel it move through my veins.
I can feel the reaction.
My heart's beating faster.
I can feel it crawling in my blood.
I can feel the reaction.
My heart's beating faster again.

Believe the lie that these drugs will save your life.
Believe the lie that these drugs will save your life.
Believe the lie that these drugs will save your life.
I believed the lie that these drugs would save my life.

Help me, God.
'Cause I've lost my way.
I'm so caught up in myself these days.
Can't see your face.
So, help me, God.
'Cause I've lost my way.
I'm so caught up in myself these days.
Can't see your face, your face.

I can feel it move through my veins.
I can feel the reaction.
My heart's beating faster.
I can feel it crawling in my blood.
I can feel the reaction.
My heart's beating faster again.

I tried to find a way for me to fill this void inside.
But what it was I didn't see, was your hand reached out to me.
