

Transparent Me

Green Carnation

The Snow Was Falling Through The Light
(I did not Know)
The mainstream roads were dim and white
(I Did not Know)
Cooling breeze was floating by Through our eyes we realize sound of city fading out that night

Road had unprotected lines
(I Did no know)
And our blessing in disguise
(I Miss you so)
What I was is left undone hopeful days are lost and gone
The Silence is tear me up inside, when you cry

when i touch your hands
(I feel so cold)
Holding you embrace
(I feel alone)
Can't you hear me breath
I'm Transparent Me

Safe and Sound you go to bed
(I miss you so)
Our past is memories that we shared (Where did you go?)
Out of sight , surrounding you oh , i hope you make it through
When the lights are Turned at night, I will be there

When i touch your hands
(I feel so cold)
Holding you embrace
(I feel alone)
Can't you hear me breath
I'm transparent me

When I touch your hands
(I feel so cold)
Holding you embrace
(I feel Alone)
Lonely dreams to see
I'm transparent me
