

Amanda

Green Day

Amanda dont you know when i still look around your talking out your mouth without a fragile sound was it difficult
the years go by so slow
was it different enough said i want to let her go
i said amanda
i wish you understand
amanda couldnt be a man amanda dont you know i was a sour mouth
and if you are mine
i wasnt smarter now and lifes so difficult
i want to let her know
when shes into the light enough to leave behind when shes only by myside without you with me amanda i really dont understand
light
