

Walk Away

Green Day

This time
I've gotta put my guard down
And pick myself up off the ground
And take the pain

It'll pass
The swelling never really lasts
But the scar remains remind me
That I'm still living

Well it's not too late
Girl it's really not worth the fight
No one's right
Well it's time to walk away

Walk away
Walk away
Walk away
Walk away

Well the bigger that you call
All the lying I can't afford

Walk away
Walk away

Did you win?
Oh baby, did you lose?
Now you're gonna lick your wounds anyway
But it comes back to you

When you fall
You're gonna need a parachute
Only a spare of shoes to go
And walk away

Well it's not too late
Girl it's really not worth the fight
No one's right
Well it's time to walk away

Walk away
Walk away
Walk away
Walk away

Well the bigger that you call
All the lying I can't afford

Walk away
Walk away

Walk away

Eh eh eh eh eh
Walk away

Eh eh eh eh eh
Walk away

Well the bigger that you call
All the lying I can't afford

Walk away
Walk away
Walk away
Walk away

Walk away
