

Fool For You

Green River Ordinance

I may not have all the money.
I may not give you that life, honey.
But I know what will be true,
I'll always be a fool for you.
I may not know where tomorrow's headed,
Or have the answer to every question.
But whatever road we choose,
I'll always be a fool for you.

Like the fears bow down to summer rain,
Like a drunk man singing with a pain.
There are some things that won't ever change,
I'll always be a fool for you.

Ain't no winding road gonna have a step on off.
Ain't no place in time we'll ever be out of tune.
Even on the days you might feel like it's changing,
Honey here I'll be saying, oh.

Like the fears bow down to summer rain,
Like a drunk man singing with a pain.
There are some things that won't ever change,
I'll always be a fool for you.

Give your heart to me, babe.
Give your heart to me, babe.
Give your heart to me, babe.
Baby I'm a fool for you.
Give your heart to me, babe.
Give your heart to me, babe.
Give your heart to me, babe.
Baby, I'm a fool for you.
Baby, I'm a fool for you.
Baby, I'm a fool for you.
