Identity

Greenwheel

No one can hear All that's been said. You're feeding me useless lines Of nothingness.

Let me run away, Don't keep me here. I can't stay around And take this fear.

Is everything I want to be A disgrace to my identity? I don't mind. Just give me my indifference, Stop questioning my reasoning. I don't mind, No, I don't mind.

Uncomfortably clear. All is the same now. I'm adapting to this. No, I'm not afraid now.

Let me run away, Don't keep me here. I won't stay around And take this fear.

Is everything I want to be A disgrace to my identity? I don't mind. Just give me my indifference, Stop questioning my reasoning. I don't mind, No, I don't mind.

I don't mind, No, I don't mind.
