

Here I am
All alone.
Situations overwhelming again.
"Be strong" I tell myself,
but fall right back again.

Hold on, I think i just realized something.

Here I am,
right in your hands.
There I am
letting you take what you can.
I won't let this happen again.
I'm too strong to fall again.

Light of hope fading more each time I breather.
Decide right or wrong,
too many roads,
a wounded soul in need.

Hold on, I think i just realized something.

Here I am,
right in your hands.
There I am
letting you take what you can.
I won't let this happen again.
I'm too strong to fall again.

Here I am.
I won't fall.
I'm too strong.
