

The End

Greenwheel

Is anyone else awake? deaf ears on these words must fall dodging friendly fire, marksmanship inspires...

The end that is never the end there's no difference between foe or friend blanks in the chamber, they'd have you believe with faces so sober
trusting souls deceived

Mouthless children, still promises they feed bullets softer now, still we bleed dodging friendly fire, marksmanship inspires...

with faces so sober
trusting souls deceived

The megaphone speaks, still pulses race and scream things will be quiet soon, soon, soon, soon..

with faces so sober
trusting souls deceived
