

Who Woulda Think It

Greg Brown

We used to say I could walk all night, and we could and we did Down that gravel road, to that tiny town, and the door always opened Now we say I could walk all night.
It's not true
We can't walk all night, no, because we don't want to
We want a bed and a blanket, some light breakfast, sometime tom orrow
We want a bed and a blanket, some light breakfast, sometime tom orrow
And I sing it now, hey hey, hey hey, who woulda think it Hey hey, hey hey, who woulda think it

We used to say I could eat a horse, and we could and we did In fast food joints in the middle of someplace on the way to so meplace else
Now we say I could eat a horse.
It's not true We can't eat a horse, no, because we don't want t o
We want somethin from the cookbook, that new one with the great graphics
Somethin from the cookbook, that new one with the great graphic s
Oh and I sing it now, hey hey, hey hey, who woulda think it
Hey hey, hey hey, who woulda think it

We used to say I don't care if I never have any money
As long as I have my sweet honey and a shack in the woodland Now we say I don't care if I don't have money, but it's not tru e
We can't live without money, no,
because we don't want to
We want one of those and two of those, and oh that one looks ne at, wrap it up Put it on my MasterCard.
Put it on my Visa
And I sing it now, hey hey, hey hey, who woulda think it Hey hey, hey hey, who woulda think it Hey hey, hey hey Hey hey, hey hey now, who woulda think it

We used to say I don't care if I never grow old I'm gonna flame, gonna burn, take one quick turn and be gone li ke James Dean
Now we don't say that. It's too late to die young So we sit at the table long after supper and a good wine Here's what we sing, we go, hey hey, hey hey, who woulda think it

Hey hey, hey hey, who woulda thunk it
