We used to say I could walk all night, and we could and we did

Down that gravel road, to that tiny town, and the door always opened

Now we say I could walk all night.

It's not true

We can't walk all night, no,

We can't walk all night, no, because we don't want to

We want a bed and a blanket, some light breakfast, sometime tom orrow

We want a bed and a blanket, some light breakfast, sometime tom orrow

And I sing it now, hey hey, hey hey, who would thunk it Hey hey, hey hey, who would thunk it

We used to say I could eat a horse, and we could and we did In fast food joints in the middle of someplace on the way to so meplace else

Now we say I could eat a horse.

It's not true We can't eat a horse, no, because we don't want to

We want somethin from the cookbook, that new one with the great graphics

Somethin from the cookbook, that new one with the great graphic s

Oh and I sing it now, hey hey, hey hey, who would thunk it Hey hey, hey hey, who would thunk it

We used to say I don't care if I never have any money
As long as I have my sweet honey and a shack in the woodland
Now we say I don't care if I don't have money, but it's not tru e

We can't live without money, no, because we don't want to

We want one of those and two of those, and oh that one looks ne at, wrap it up

Put it on my MasterCard.

Put it on my Visa

And I sing it now, hey hey, hey hey, who would thunk it Hey hey, hey hey, who would thunk it Hey hey, hey hey hey hey now, who would thunk it

We used to say I don't care if I never grow old I'm gonna flame, gonna burn, take one quick turn and be gone like James Dean

Now we don't say that. It's too late to die young So we sit at the table long after supper and a good wine Here's what we sing, we go, hey hey, hey hey, who woulda thunk
