

You, Now

Greg Laswell

The sun, the moon and everything
In between the stars and the sea
Everything can wait until I see you, you

This life is not to waste
I want you, now, you, now

The days, the nights and everything
Between the time I wake and go to sleep
Everything can wait until I see you, you

This life is not to waste
I want you, now, you, now

The dreams, the plans and everything
I've made 'til now do not really mean a thing
They will have to wait until

This life is not to waste
I want you, now
This life is not to waste
I want you, now
