

Avalanche! Oh, Avalanche!

Gregory and the Hawk

Avalanche!
Oh, avalanche!
You are the number one
Natural disaster of Switzerland

The swift put up their ears to keep you out
And build covered roadways to save themselves
But it's no use; you always kill
At least a few skiers a year
Just to remind them to be fearful
At least a few skiers a year

A few innocent lives a year

Avalanche!
Oh, avalanche!
