

We went down to the shore on a day that was warm
With the end of my fist, I thanked you for this Over watch of fields and feelings I've met
I could pray to the day
I haven't felt them yet

The waves will watch you go
'Til you're gone
And you come home no more