Landscapes

Gregory and the Hawk

Keystone bridges clip the sky from window seats Lean right over me Smell my promises to take a pleasant start Ease a sense of heart, give a little bit

Maybe you were my song Don't have to stay too long Fed up with your friends Whatever I could do to mend it now

Phone lines follow us like heartbeats in the dusk Hold my hand and gush Sweet landscapes from the bus Ah ,the straw your neck is strong as a drawbridge in stencil Work all week and find defeat in the tent's intense tendrils

On the mend we line 'em up Oh, Viperous The slippery facts we tend to trust Oh, Viperous
