Gregory and the Hawk

Today day is a slow day
And I'll play guitar till the day goes away
Trying to write a song that says "I love you"
Trying to let you know I do
The dawn is bowing out
And the afternoon dawns on me now
Trying to write a song thats says "I'm tired"
Of trying to get you
The night is a dark night
When it finally sets
And I'll make it out to seem like I wanted it a little bit
The better to see you with
