

In Heaven

Gregory Porter

In heaven, that's where you'll see me my love
Not on the earth, with its troubles and cares
In heaven, that's where you'll see me my love
Not on the earth, with its toils and snares

So don't go running into the mountains my love
Because you know that I won't be there
And don't go running into the hillsides my love
Just lift your head up and say a prayer

In heaven, that's where you'll see me my love
Not on the earth, with its troubles and cares
In heaven, that's where you'll see me my love
Not on the earth, with its toils and snares

So don't go running into the mountains my love
Because you know that I won't be there
And don't go running into the hillsides my love
Just lift your head up and say a prayer

In heaven
In heaven
