

Grandma

Gretchen Wilson

Grandma's turning 92
That's a lot of years ahead of you
So, listen close to what I say
Cause Grandma's feeling old today

She said I can't believe I'm sitting here
As old as I am
Never been stoned

I've waited too damn long
So, bring it on
Grandma's gonna fly

So, I rolled it up and passed it around
Grandma smoked the whole thing down
She was making up for wasted ground
Too many times she turned it down

She said You live your life until it's gone
And the things you never try just slip away
Until they're gone, too

I've waited too damn long
So, bring it on
Grandma's gonna fly

And as we talked about the old days
She said some things that blew my mind
She said You ain't seen a thing
Until you've seen Grandma getting high
Mmm-mm-mmm

Now, Grandma didn't have much time left
But she made use of every breath
I swear she smiled before she left
And I watched the world fall off her chest, mmm

And as the gates of heaven of heaven opened wide
She slipped over to the other side
She was singin', yeahhh

I've waited too damn long
So, bring it on
Grandma's gonna fly

I've waited too damn long
So, bring it on
Grandma's gonna fly
