

Outlaws and Renegades

Gretchen Wilson

Well just the other day
I was drivin' down the road
And I was listenin' to the stuff
'Comin' out of music row
Well I didn' recognize a single song
Or none of the names
But it didn't really matter
'Cause they all seemed to sound the same

Where's all the outlaws and renegades
Lord knows I miss those days
Where they said
what they thought
What they thought was what was on your mind
Did all the outlaws and renegades
Pack up and go home
I guess the outlaw and renegade days are gone

Well I got home and I
Turned on my TV
And I saw some politician bitchin'
'Bout the way it should be
He said a vote for me
Is a vote to be free at last
But today I just paid four dollars
For a gallon of gas

Oh where's all the outlaws and renegades
Lord knows I miss those days
Where they said
What they thought
What they thought was what was on your mind
Did all the outlaws and renegades
Pack up and go home
I guess the outlaw and renegade days are gone

Oh where's all the outlaws and renegades
Lord knows I miss those days
Where they said
What they thought
What they thought was what was on your mind yeah

Did all the outlaws and renegades
Pack up and go home
I guess the outlaw and renegade days are gone yeah
I guess the outlaw and renegade days are gone
Just gone

I'm talkin' about Johnny Cash
Waylon Jennings
I mean hell son
You're just a little Willie Nelson
Come on
