

Still Rollin'

Gretchen Wilson

Road side signs
Eighteen wheels rollin' through the night
Sometimes, I wondered 'bout this crazy, lonely life
People come and go
Some you love, and some you don't
Some you lose, and some you learn to let go

And I don't know what I'm trying to find
Stealing love on borrowed time
Always missing what I have left behind

But I keep rollin'
I keep on rollin'

I can't slow down
I can't tell you where I'm bound
Maybe I'm just spinnin' 'round and 'round
Maybe I'm a page
Written words I can't erase
A book of songs I sing from stage to stage

And I know that there may come a day
Where I have nothin' more to say
Wonder if they'll think I've lost my way

I'm still rollin'
I keep on rollin'

I'm still rollin'
I keep on rollin'

I'm still rollin'
I keep on rollin'
