Road side signs Eighteen wheels rollin' through the night Sometimes, I wondered 'bout this crazy, lonely life People come and go Some you love, and some you don't Some you lose, and some you learn to let go And I don't know what I'm trying to find Stealing love on borrowed time Always missing what I have left behind But I keep rollin' I keep on rollin' I can't slow down I can't tell you where I'm bound Maybe I'm just spinnin' 'round and 'round Maybe I'm a page Written words I can't erase A book of songs I sing from stage to stage And I know that there may come a day Where I have nothin' more to say Wonder if they'll think I've lost my way I'm still rollin' I keep on rollin' I'm still rollin' I keep on rollin' I'm still rollin' I keep on rollin'
