The Gypsy in Me

Mmm yeah

Gretchen Wilson

You're disappearing, that's all there is to it Yeah, that's the long and the short of it all Drifting on that ol' wind like leaves in the fall

It comes down to a whole lot of nothing No matter how hard I try

You were meant to go down the winding road And leave me behind

So, if I can't win for losing
If there's nothing left, and you wanna go free
Just give me tonight and I'll be alright
Cause all that I need is a little time
And I'll find the gypsy in me

Oh yeah

So I'll ride down that long stretch of lonely Wrapped in my blanket of stars
This will end to nothing, but it will end in my heart

So if I can't win for losing
Just give me tonight and I'll be alright
Cause all that I need is a little time
And I'll find the gypsy in me

Oh yeah

(Woah woah woah woah The gypsy in me)
So I'll miss you tonight
Ohh I love you, babe
I wish you well
