

Nevermind

Gretchen

If you'd try to understand
The reason for my dissention
A careless word
A slight of hand
A paranoid apprehension

Could it be, that you're feeling all alone?
As you sit on your self-appointed throne
And your fans, with their hands up in the air
Smile at you

Nevermind, wait just a minute
Nevermind, only for a moment
Nevermind, what was I going to say?
Nevermind, wait just a minute
Nevermind, if only for a moment
Nevermind, I just forgot what to say

If you'd try to realize
The difference between us
When I choose to draw the line
Well, will that be the instant?

Cause it seems, that you're feeling all alone
As you sit on your self-appointed throne
And your fans, with their hands up in the air
Smile at you

Nevermind, wait just a minute
Nevermind, only for a moment
Nevermind, what was I going to say?
Nevermind, wait just a minute
Nevermind, if only for a moment
Nevermind, I just forgot what to say

Nevermind, wait just a minute
Nevermind, only for a moment
Nevermind, what was I going to say?
Nevermind, wait just a minute
Nevermind, if only for a moment
Nevermind, I just forgot what to say
