

Show Me Yourself

Griffin House

There s no excuse
For what I have done
I told you the truth
Has anything changed?

I'll understand if your heart has been won
But I'd still like to know
If I'm still in the game

Come on now,
Show me yourself
Come on now,
Show me yourself

It's true that I travel
I travel back home
Should I pick you up
Should I leave you alone?

Come on now,
Show me yourself
Come on now,
Show me yourself

But I've never written a song for a girl like you
I'm missing out without you here

Come on now,
Show me yourself
Come on now,
Show me yourself

Don't even care
Whatever I've had
Can't even remember
I want you that bad

Come on now
Show me yourself
Come on now
Show me yourself
