Grimes

When we were young, we used to live so close to it
And you were scared and you were beautiful
I want to peer over the edge and see in death
If we are always the same

Oh, I fear that no love will ever be like this again
Cuz your love kept me alive and it made me insane
Oh-oh-oh

There were moments when it seemed okay
(But I go back alone)
Where do you go? Where do you stay?
(I go back alone)
There was a time when the music would play
Oh-oh-oh

[x2]
Oh, baby, every morning there are mountains to climb
Taking all my time
Oh, when I get up, this is what I see
Welcome to reality
