

Do a little bit of fucking tang
Try to sit down but you gotta dance
All you want is just a half a chance
All she wants is just a fun romance

I gotta pocket full of change, let's get tanked
A pocket full of change, let's get tanked
All you want is just half a chance
Come on let's dance, sugar
Let's dance, let's dance

I gotta lotta people that I'd like to thank
Suspended animation critical think tank
Shed a tear or maybe bust a rhyme
Know you love to have a real good time

You can stand in the ocean line
I'll come to you and somewhere suffering second night
I was kicked out of my school social
No school social
School social, school

Do a little bit of fucking tang
Try to sit down but you gotta dance
All you want is just a half a chance
All he wants is just a fun romance

I gotta pocket full of change, let's get tanked
A pocket full of change, let's get tanked
All you want is half a chance

After all is said and done, you're still a vision
Complimentary drinks to you, you've found your reason
You won't hear it on the television, see it on the radio
You won't hear it on the television, see it on the radio
