Grizzly Bear

Juan from Argentina

Such a strange predicament we find ourselves in

Baby, it's a long way to South America

Every option I have costs more than I've got

If you trust in me, if I could I would be there

All I have to give

Seems to be all over you and everyone else

I guess I'm guilty spreading thin with my love

If you trust in me, if I could I would be there

If you trust in me, if I could I would be there

If you trust in me, if I could I would be there
