

Ready, Able

Grizzly Bear

I'm gonna take a stab at this,
sure you will be alright

Make a decision with a kiss
Baby I hold fast by it.

And when I trek alone back home
I need; shall I trek in the snow?

Tissue and bones; it was a trick
This is a knock on five

Checking it off my list
Honey look to rewrite.

Time is cast once; and far alone.
Hope I'm ready, able to make my own;
goodbye.

They go we go, I want you to know, what I did I did,
They go we go, I want you to know, what I did I did.

They go we go, I want you to know, what I did I did,
They go we go, I want you to know, what I did I did.

They go we go, I want you to know, what I did I did,
They go we go, I want you to know, what I did I did.
