I traced a line A picture perfect vision in my mind No colour, no shape No light, no face

You never show The one I know But who could ever find Like love we made

So shut your mouth Cause I heard it babe Just put your hands on me There's only living in your stare babe So keep your electri c eye on me

We're going over the wall Catch me I can hear in your heart It' s real

You have control You work my soul But one now makes two To the power of you

You don't want me To love you Cause you know what I Can do to y our heart

I don't want To love you Cause I know what you Can do to my hea rt
