

Force of Nature

Groove Coverage

While a force of nature is falling down to world.
Seas of tears and sadness, no one knows my worth.

No reason for existence, to be or not to be...
It's just a scene of madness, all the signs I was too blind to see.

Back on wasted places, the end of time's been reached covered human faces, I can't get no sleep.

Like a force of nature pain is flooding me.
My scene of perdition, no reply to what it means to be...
