Groove Coverage

Are you sick and tired, honey?
Always wearing grey.
Are you board of living lonely
Through the rainy day?
Is there something you wanna tell me?
Is there something wrong?
Come and dry your tears with laughter
and we'll be them gone.

Everything that you believed was true.
In your mind was just a dream.
And your desires don't belong to you.
And all the time you wanna scream.

Go ahead and shout, shout and let it out,
shout and do it loud, come on I wanna hear you scream and
shout, shout and let it out, shout into the crowd,
come on I wanna hear you scream and shout, shout, shout, shout, shout, shout, shout, go ahead and shout, shout, shout, shout, shout, shout, shout, scream and...

Still there walking in sadness baby,
Have you lost your fears?
Did you final find your resting?
Let go off your tears.
Is there something you wanna tell me?
Is there something wrong?
Come and dry your tears with nothing.
Just shout through this song.

Everything that you believed was true.
In your mind was just a dream.
And your desires don't belong to you.
And all the time you wanna scream.

Go ahead and shout, shout and let it out,
shout and do it loud, come on I wanna hear you scream and
shout, shout and let it out, shout into the crowd,
come on I wanna hear you scream and
shout, shout, shout, shout, shout, shout, shout, go ahead and shout, shout, shout, shout, shout, shout, shout, scream and...
