

Singin Hallelujah

Group 1 Crew

This is for the broken
This is for the ones hurting
Close your eyes and just imagine for a moment
Never being lonely, never being down again Feeling like the world's been lifted off your shoulders.

There's a place where the old will be new
And the troubles of this life will be through
I'm tellin' you, I'm tellin' you...
We'll be there soon

One day we're are gonna fly
Free from the weight of this life
Heaven's mercy flowing through us

We'll all be lifting our hands,
with every reason to dance
And we'll be singin' "Hallelujah!"
We'll be singin' "Hallelujah!"

Can you imagine
never seeing war again?
Peace and joy and life
in every single heart
Say goodbye to sickness
Farewell to all our sin
We're giving praise to the One who loved us from the start

Everything that was old will be new
And the troubles of this life will be through
I'm tellin' you, I'm tellin' you...
That one day

One day we're are gonna fly
Free from the weight of this life
Heaven's mercy flowing through us

We'll all be lifting our hands,
with every reason to dance
And we'll be singin' "Hallelujah!"
We'll be singin' "Hallelujah!"

(Hallelujah, Hallelujah, Hallelujah, Forever we will sing)

We wrote this for the broken and the spiritual thirsty
And everyone who needs to know that they worthy Sing songs to our Daddy, give Him glory and praise
And sing forever cause we know our God has conquered the grave!

Everything is made new Troubles fade away
Joy is gonna break through

Let me hear ya say

(One day)

One day we're are gonna fly
Free from the weight of this life
Heaven's mercy flowing through us

We'll all be lifting our hands,
with every reason to dance
And we'll be singin' "Hallelujah!"
We'll be singin' "Hallelujah!"

We'll be singin' "Hallelujah!"
