

Cruel and Beautiful World

Go ahead and close the door. I'll stand outside in the rain.
A little bird just told me. So, it's time to start over again.
So, I'll man up and take this boat far away from these shores and I'll reach behind an enemy light and find my terrible cure.

'Cause it's a cruel and beautiful world and I got my girl and if it seems like we're falling behind,
we're just slippin' and tuggin' from the mouths of our mind.

I buried a treasure far off near the desert. I'm trying to find my way there.

It's been too long since I've been myself and my eyes can't see anymore but there's a song inside this heart of mine and I'd like to sing it to you 'cause there's an earthquake shakin' inside my country, now what am I gonna do?

'Cause it's a cruel and beautiful world and I got my girl and if
it seems like we're falling behind,
we're just slippin' and tuggin' from the mouths of our mind.

'Cause it's a cruel and beautiful world and I got my girl and if
it seems like we're falling behind,
we're just slippin' and tuggin' from the mouths of our mind.
