

Shot

Gruntruck

Say what you're saying
Without any reason why
Say that they're staying
But don't really have the time
Say that you're praying
The words, they are miles wide
Say what you're saying
I think we need a better time

Shot, shot, shot, thinking, your ringing of a war
I got my head wrapped up so I couldn't think at all
Shot, shot, shot, thinking, your ringing of a war
I got my head wrapped up so I couldn't think at all

To kill
To kill
To kill
Yeah

Say what a day is
It's really an ending night
Pray that we want out
It's really a wish for them
See what they're saying
I think they should, yeah, lay real low
Pray what they're saying
I think they need a better line

Shot, shot, shot, thinking, your ringing of a war
I got my head wrapped up so I couldn't think at all
Shot, shot, shot, thinking, your ringing of a war
I got my head wrapped up so I couldn't think at all

Somebody have a better way?
Somebody have a better way?
Somebody have a better way?
Better way (better way)
Better way (better way)
Better way (better way)
Better way

See what they're saying
Without any reason why
See what they're saying
The words, they are miles wild
Pray what you're saying, man
While we were staying really low
See what they're saying
I think they need a better line

Shot, shot, shot, thinking, your ringing of a war
I got my head wrapped up so I couldn't think at all
Shot, shot, shot, thinking, your ringing of a war
I got my head wrapped up so I couldn't think at all

To kill
To kill

To kill
To kill
To kill
To kill
To kill
