GS Megaphone

You hurt me oh so deeply, I could not even cry, Your poison was effective I must admit.

I was afraid to love, I was afraid to hate
I was afraid to fail, I was afraid to win.

Hey, honestly, do you think, That you're the only snake with Venom.

I'll not pretend to be the, the one that you should fear. I don't keep my weakness from out of view.

Jesus is my protector, my healer and my God,
So now you know there's someone after you.
