

When the Ships Arrive

Guano Apes

I leave you tomorrow
Will you hunt my shadow
You treat me like horror
I'm not feeding your violence
Force you with the silence

I'm leaving the harbour
Tear drops to swallow
We stay on the water
Till your sonic reaches out for an aim

And now we'll cry
Out for the ocean
Cause when the ships arrive again
I hope for a mayday

They call our names
We will fade away
Will they be ashamed
When we fade away

So who do you follow
Humans of sorrow
Come down into the hollow
Tearing me up in vain

And now we'll cry
Out for the ocean
Cause when the ships arrive again
I hope for a mayday

And I will cry
Out for the ocean
Cause when the ships arrive again
I hope for a mayday

We fly like the wind
And dive into the ground
I'm lying in the sand
Till the night brings us out

And now we'll cry
Out for the ocean
Cause when the ships arrive again
I hope for a mayday

And I will cry
Out for the ocean
Cause when the ships arrive again
I hope for a mayday
