

Forever And A Day

Guardian

I was just thinking about You and all the things that we've been thru.
You never left me standing in heartache, and You've always seen me thru.

I thank you for the Love You bring me each and every day. After all the things You've done for me,
there's only one thing I can say.

Forever and a day, You, know my heart will always stay, cause I believe in You . . . I believe in You.
No matter what they say, forever
and a day, I believe in You, I believe in You

At times it gets a little bit crazy;
sometimes I get a little too far away.
I know that times are really changing, but Your love stays the same.

I thank you for the Love You bring
me each and every day. After all the things You've done for me,
there's only one thing I can say.

Forever and a day, You, know my
heart will always stay, cause I believe in You . . . I believe in You.
No matter what they say, forever
and a day, I believe in You, I believe in You

You've always been my Light in the middle of darkness. You've always been the hope that lights the way;
and forever I will stay

I thank you for the Love You bring
me each and every day. After all the things You've done for me,
there's only one thing I can say.

Forever and a day, You, know my
heart will always stay, cause I believe in You . . . I believe in You.
No matter what they say, forever
and a day, I believe in You, I believe in You
